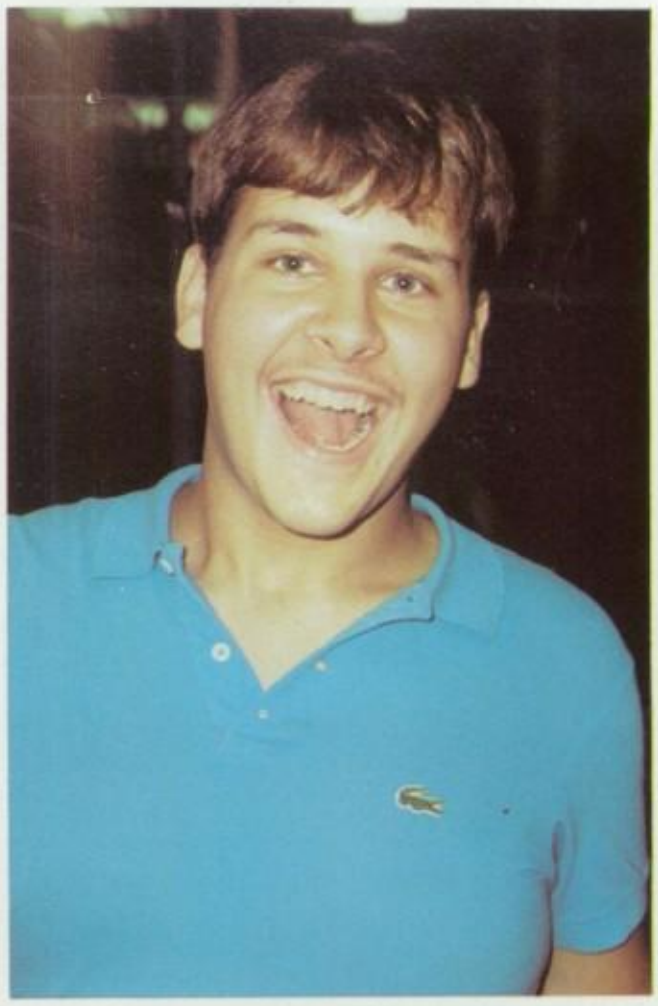
Abracadabra . . . Make this a T-bone!

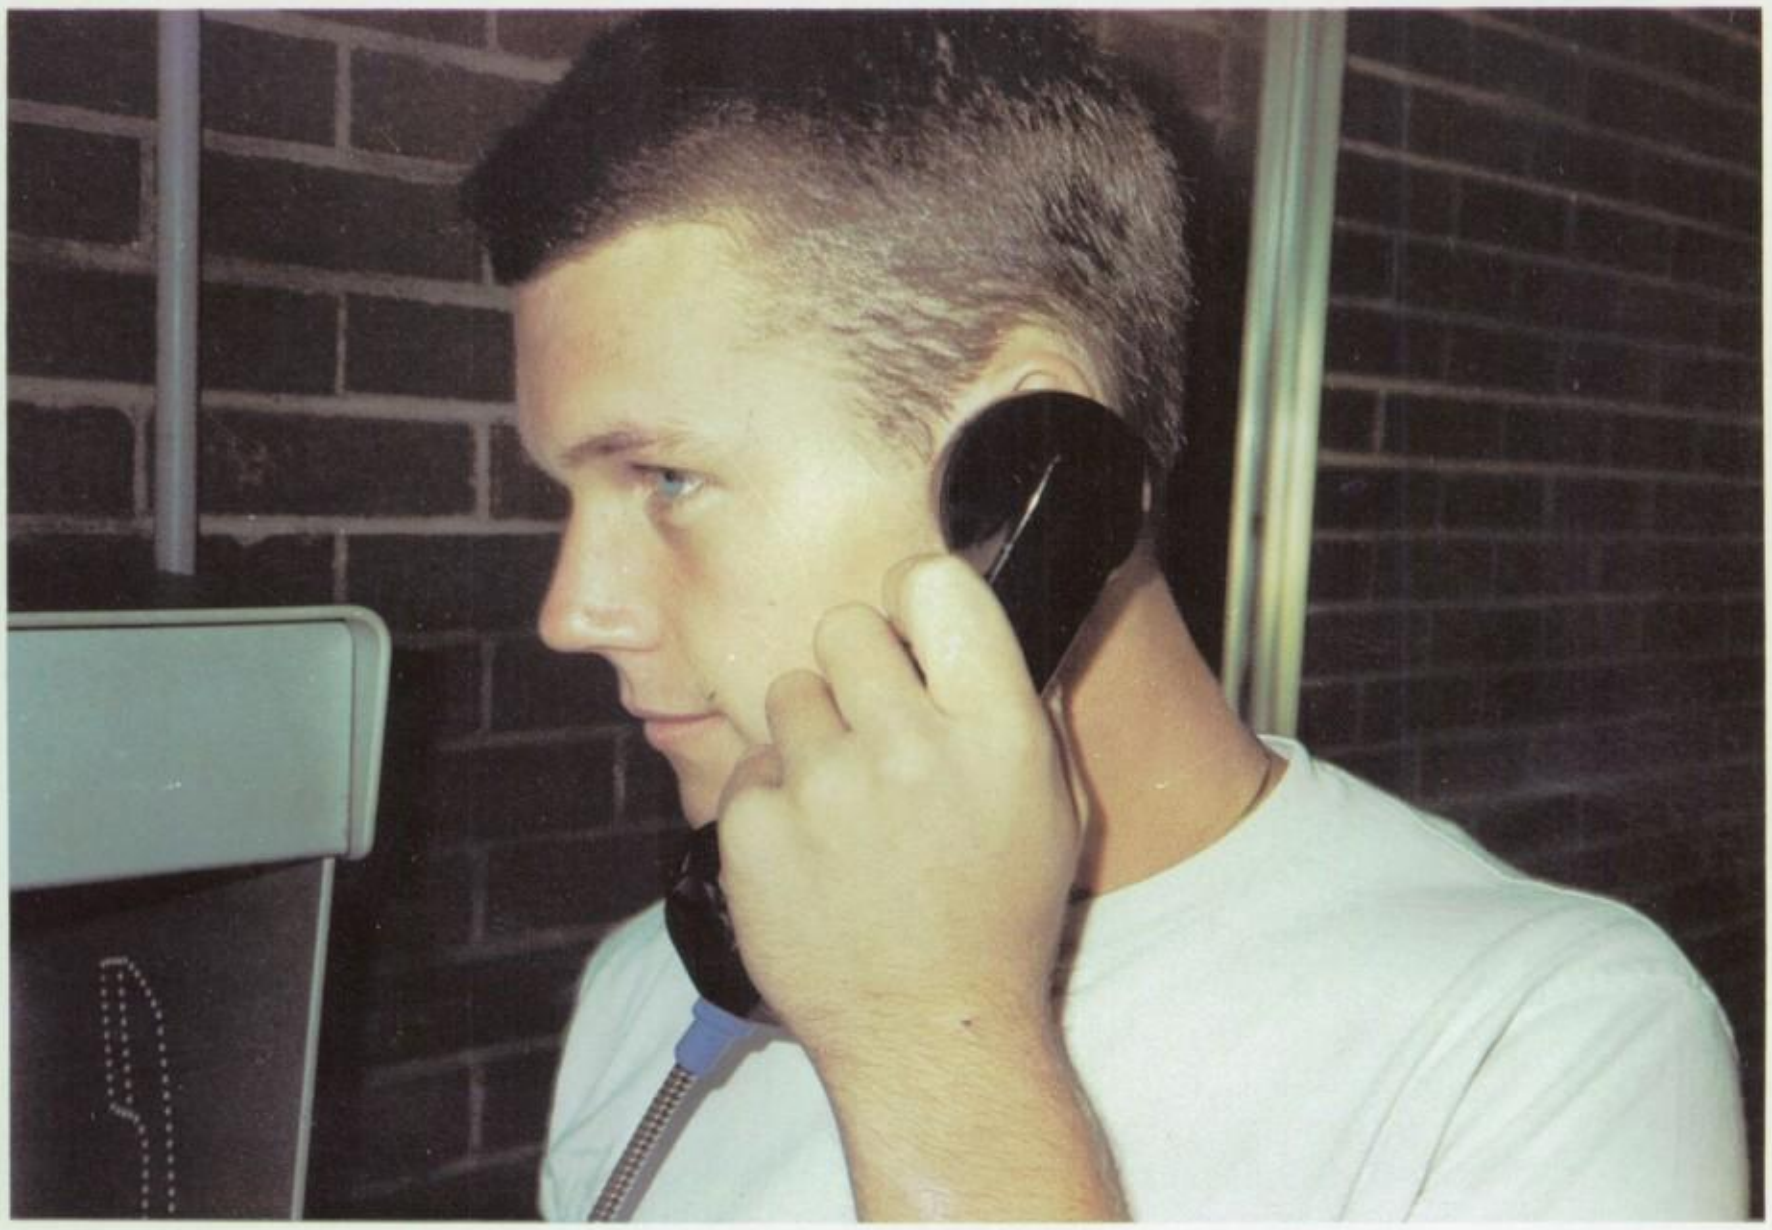
What are you stashing away?



Hey, y'all! How ya doing?

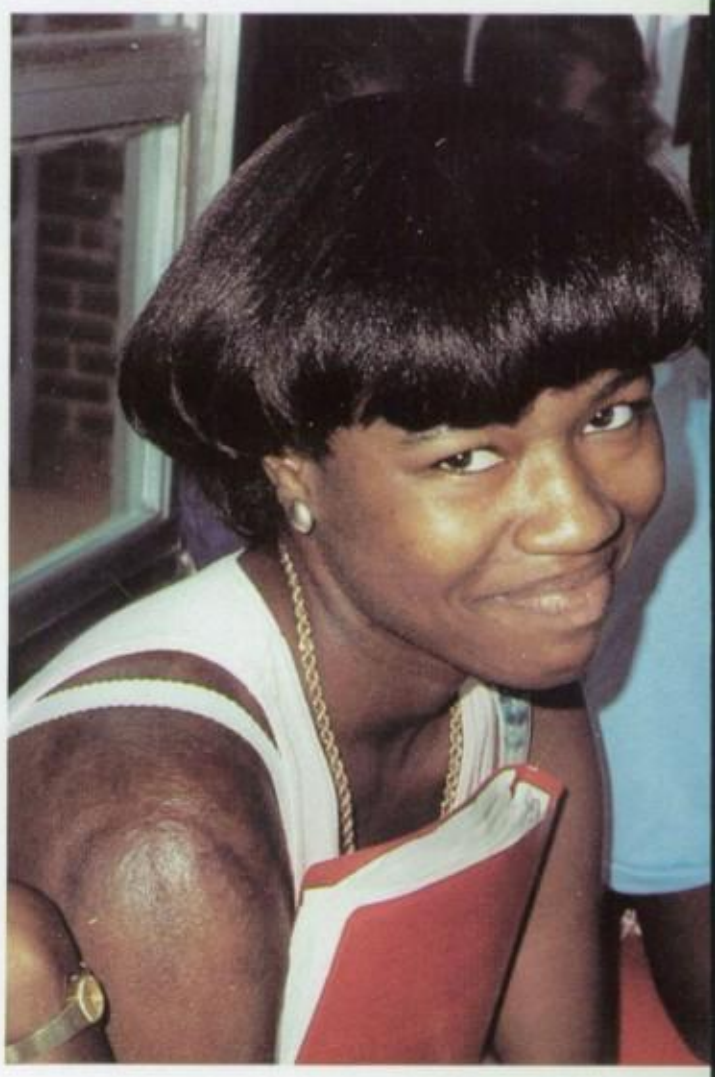
Let your fingers do the walking

Reach out and touch someone



Keeping in touch

Since South opened her doors for the first time, she has had the reputation of being a community school. The students and teachers that have passed through the school have been a family. Together, they've shared joys, and they've shared tears. Whenever there has been work to be done, a phone call has been all that was needed to get the job done. The faculty and the students have always been eager to lend a helping hand. The closeness that was present at the beginning still continues today; it is the school's trademark. South's "family" will always be close. Students come, and students go, but they will never be forgotten. They have made South the great school that she is. South will never forget her students, and students that have passed through her doors will never forget the school. Wherever our goals and our dreams lead us, we will never be too far away to lose touch with those who have helped us through the years. South's family will always be KEEPING IN TOUCH.



Number 1 operator

Her hard work, her cheerful smile, her sense of humor, and her dedication to her students and to South Stanly High School impress us. We love her. The Class of 1988 is proud to dedicate the 1988 SOUTHERNER to Mrs. Toni Massey.

Two more!

Even though the junior high is housed in the building with the senior high students, it is difficult to get the photographs necessary for the junior high section of the yearbook. The seniors who make up the journalism staff have schedules that conflict with junior high ballgames, etc. As a result, the staff is often short on photographs.

Promising future

The Jr. High Girls' Basketball Team, led by Coach Ron Huff, completed their season with a 4-10 record. The girls started off hot as they won three out of the first five games. The future brightens as the girls continue to improve.

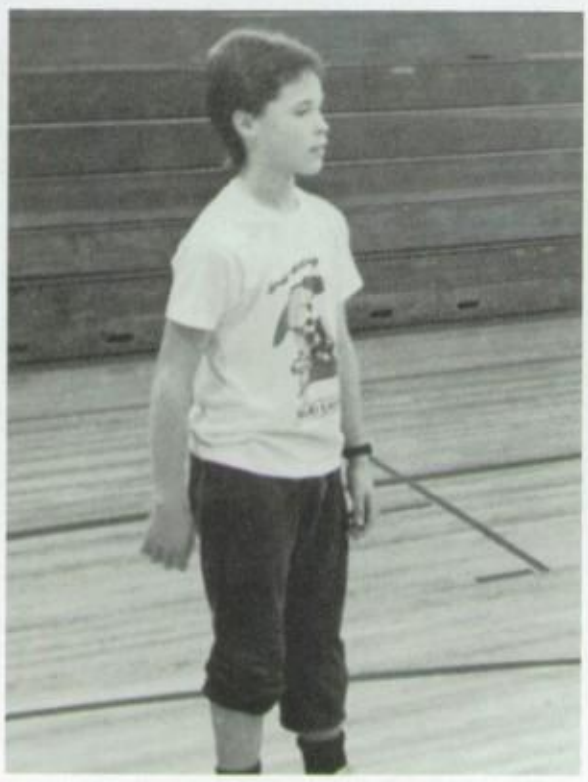
The Jr. High Boys' Basketball Team compiled a 7-7 record this season. Coach Ron Huff's hard work and determination provided the winning combination throughout the season. The boys can look forward to further improving the future tradition of South Stanly basketball.

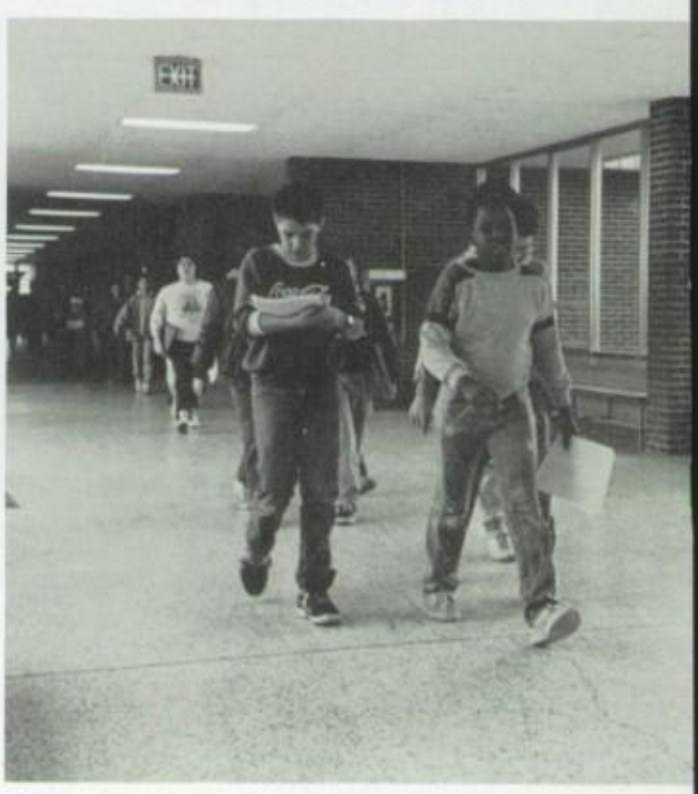
From elementary . . .

Don't be shy!➡

Walk this way!



I'm so lonely!



Hey Casper-Jasper!

Here's looking at you.

"Laugh-In" class➡

. . . to Native Rebels!

Taking a picture of me?➡

Begging for an A?

What class is this?➡

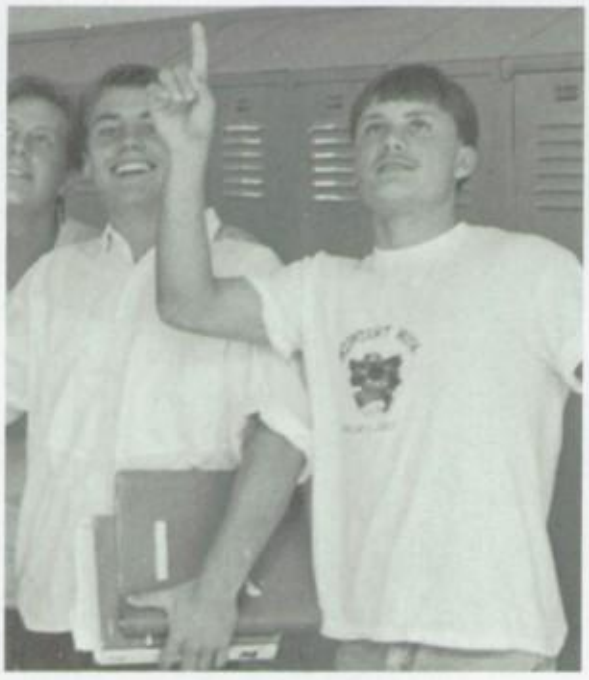
Bunny Hop!

Please, people!

⬅Ayyy

Doing their thing

Angie, won't they behave?➡



It's a bird; it's a plane; it's . . .?

Decorating the school

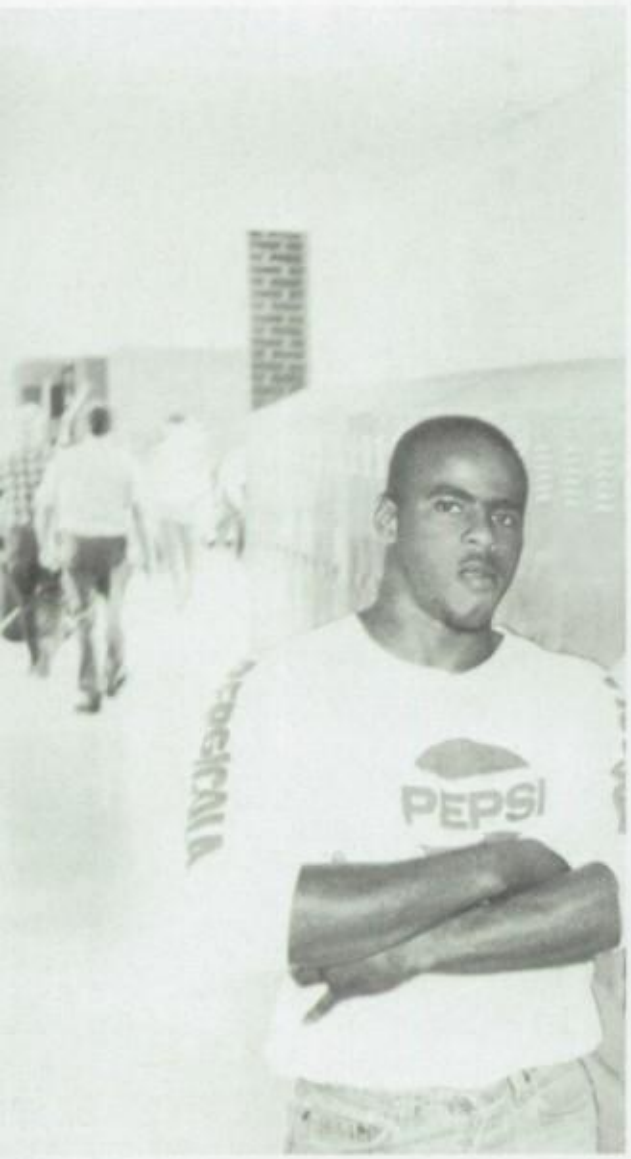
And here they are!

I'll never tell.

Is it Randy or Macbeth?

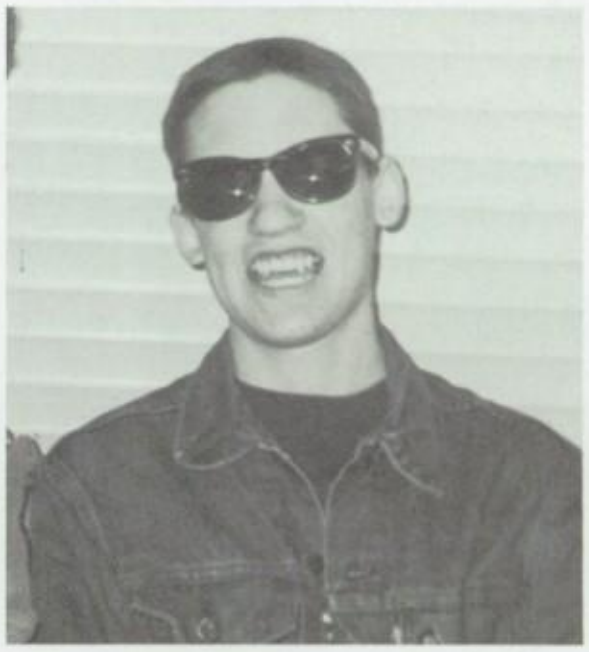
Forever friendly faces

Take the picture and leave us alone.➡



Tough man Watkins

See our new SSHS cheerleaders?!



Oh, what big teeth you have!

⬅Mom, please let me leave.

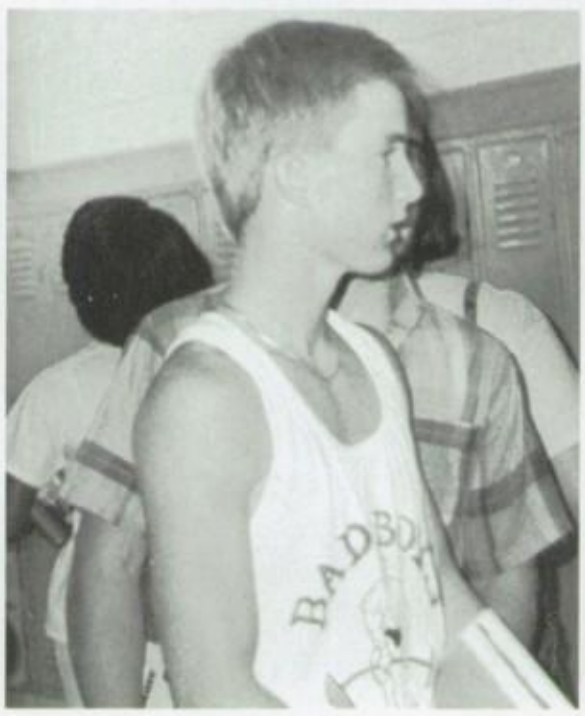
Me and my buddy

I'm keeping it secret.

The ruling of the Rebels

⬅Yea, we're SENIORS!

Designing your future home?

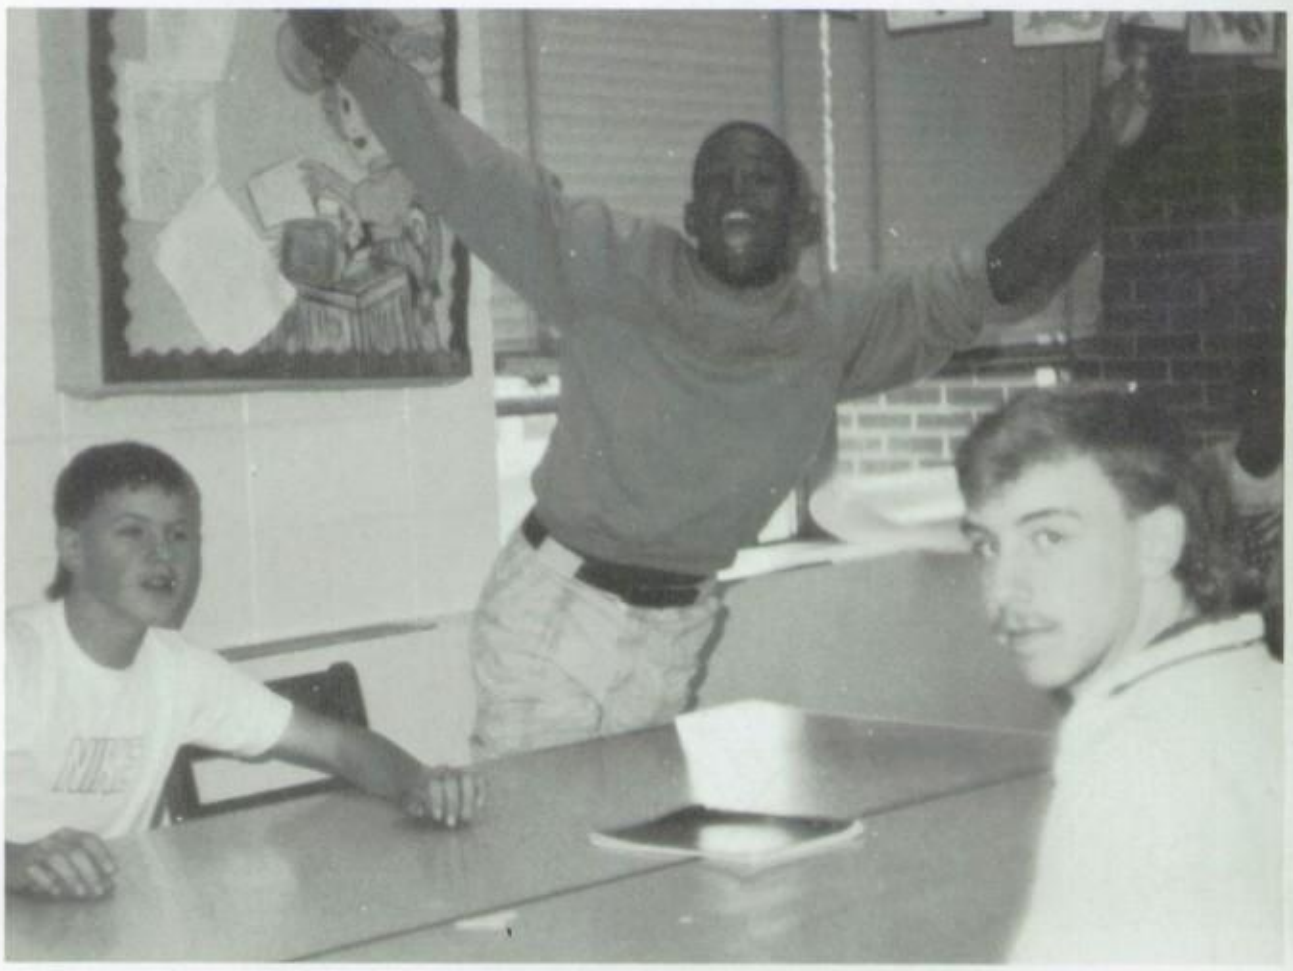


Gary's a Bad Boy.

It's like this . . .

Look at me!➡

No work and all play



Showing our best side

←Homecoming court: male or female?

Tough test, Randy?

Come on down!

I can't wait for class

Patricia- telling it her way

Another Renoir on the rise

Miles of smiles

The Journalism quartet➡

Senior totem pole

Show those pearly whites, Regina.

Two's company; three's a crowd.

Spit it out, Carmen.

Prom or Twirp Week?

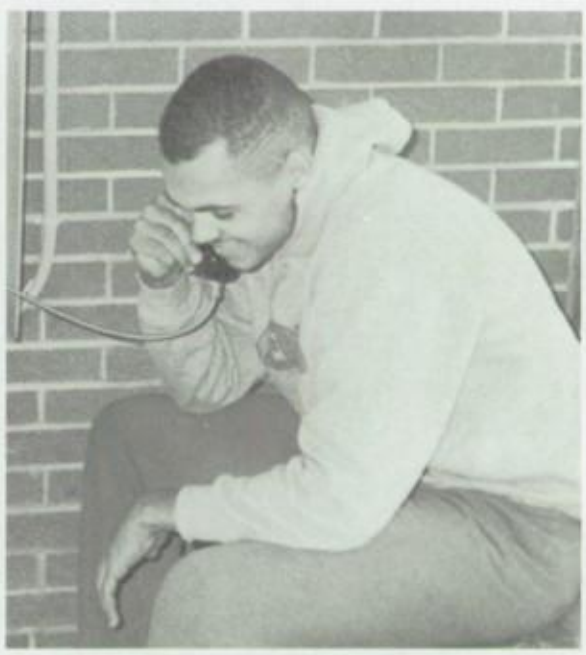
School's not all work

⬅Where are your glasses, Carla?

Tell those girls how it is, Mike.

Let's cuddle.

The IDEAL pyramid!



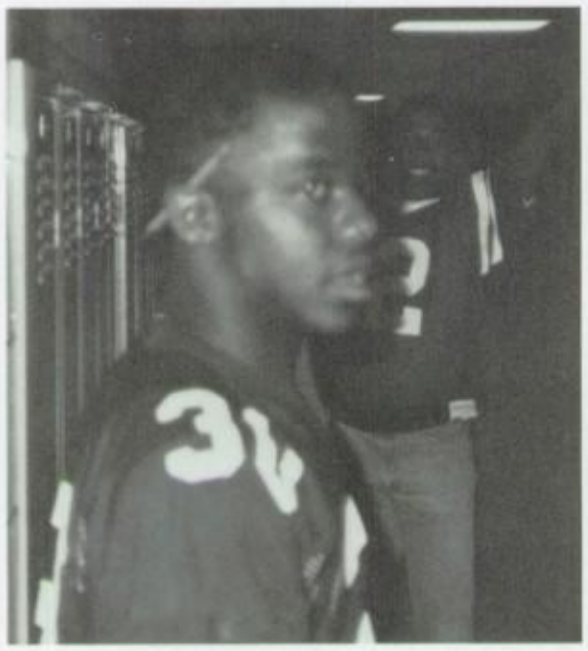
Baby, I gotta go to class now!

Seniors decking out for Twirp Week

Takin' it easy, David?

Dial 'em up

⬅Raise it a little higher, Tonya.



He's not really trash, guys - or is he?

Did a good-lookin' girl just walk by, Jeff?

Hey, man!

A state of shock!

Sashaying to class

Don't worry; it's just the camera!

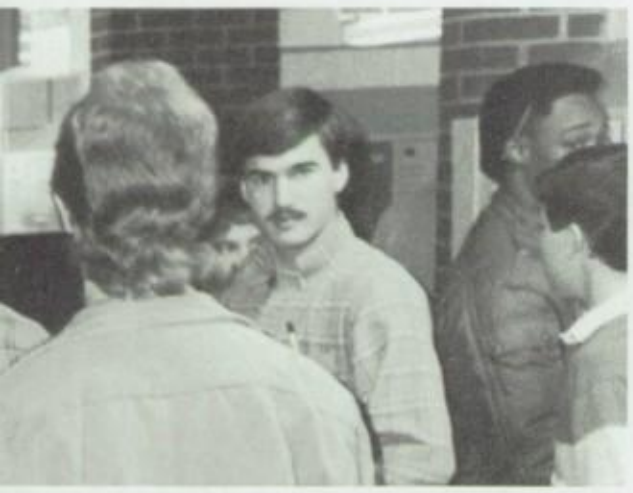
Hang on tight, Kevin!

Ring it in

⬅What YOU want?

Time to go to class, Marty!

Skipping class?



Caught in action

Wake up!

The Copenhagen kids

Caught ya!

A touch of class

South's School of Art➡

Sneaking out?

Get me out of here

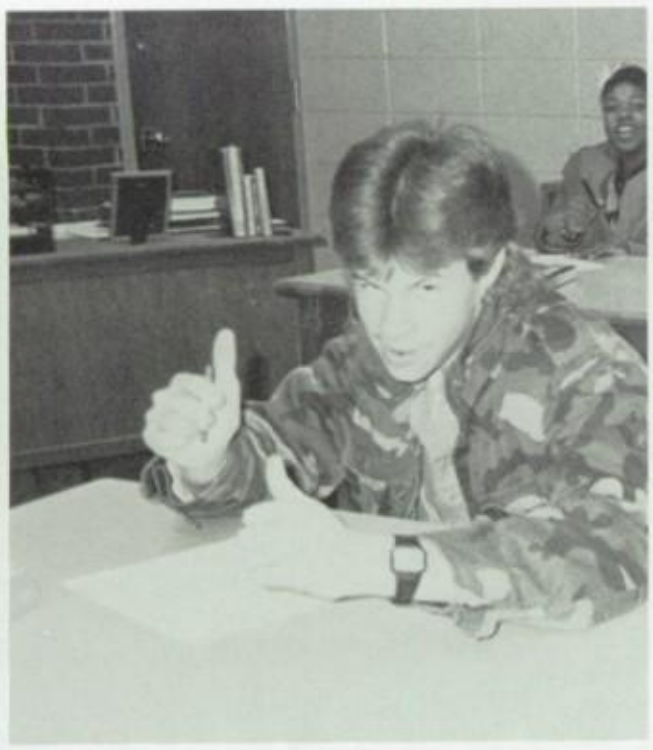
The Funky Chicken

Working up a sweat

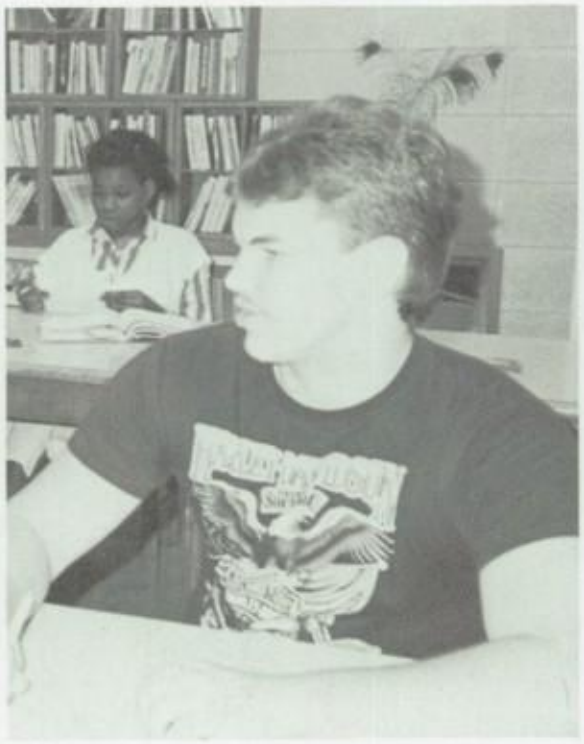
Monkey face

The 3:00 smiles

Busy signals



Hey, I know this stuff.



Lynn, where is your paper?

Strip show in progress

⬅Is that a smile I see?

Break time

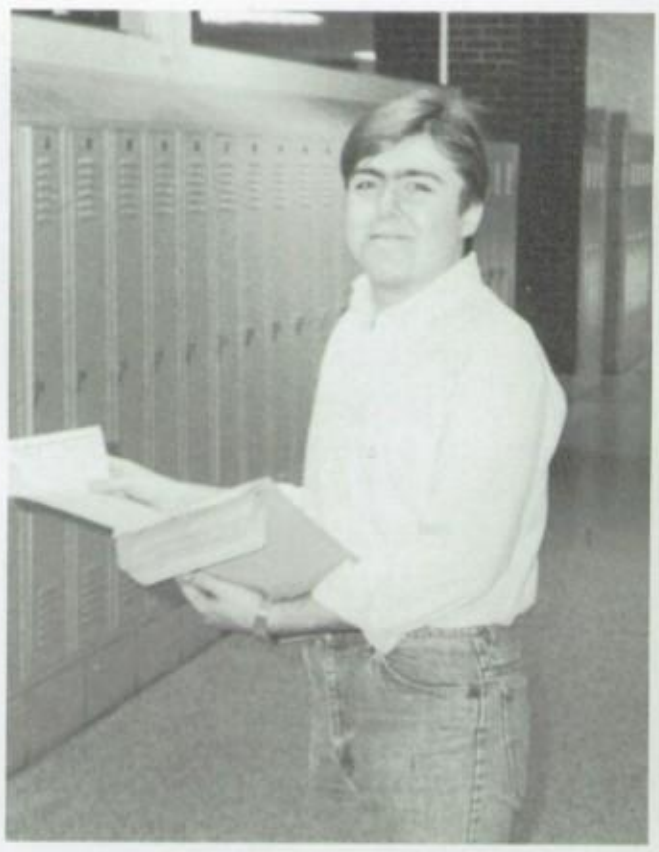
Off to class

Taking it all off

Answering those BELLS

Artists of SSHS

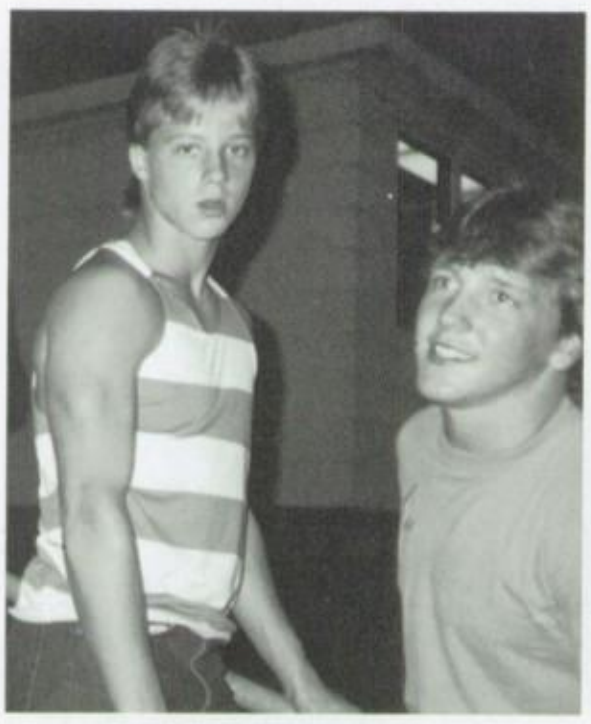
In deep thought



The official office assistant

Stylin' and profilin'!➡

Did you get the wrong notebook, Mitchell?



Come out of the fog, Mike!

Flex it for us, Jamie!

Dialing the high numbers

See something interesting?

Whatcha stashing away?

←Growing old together↓

In the shadows

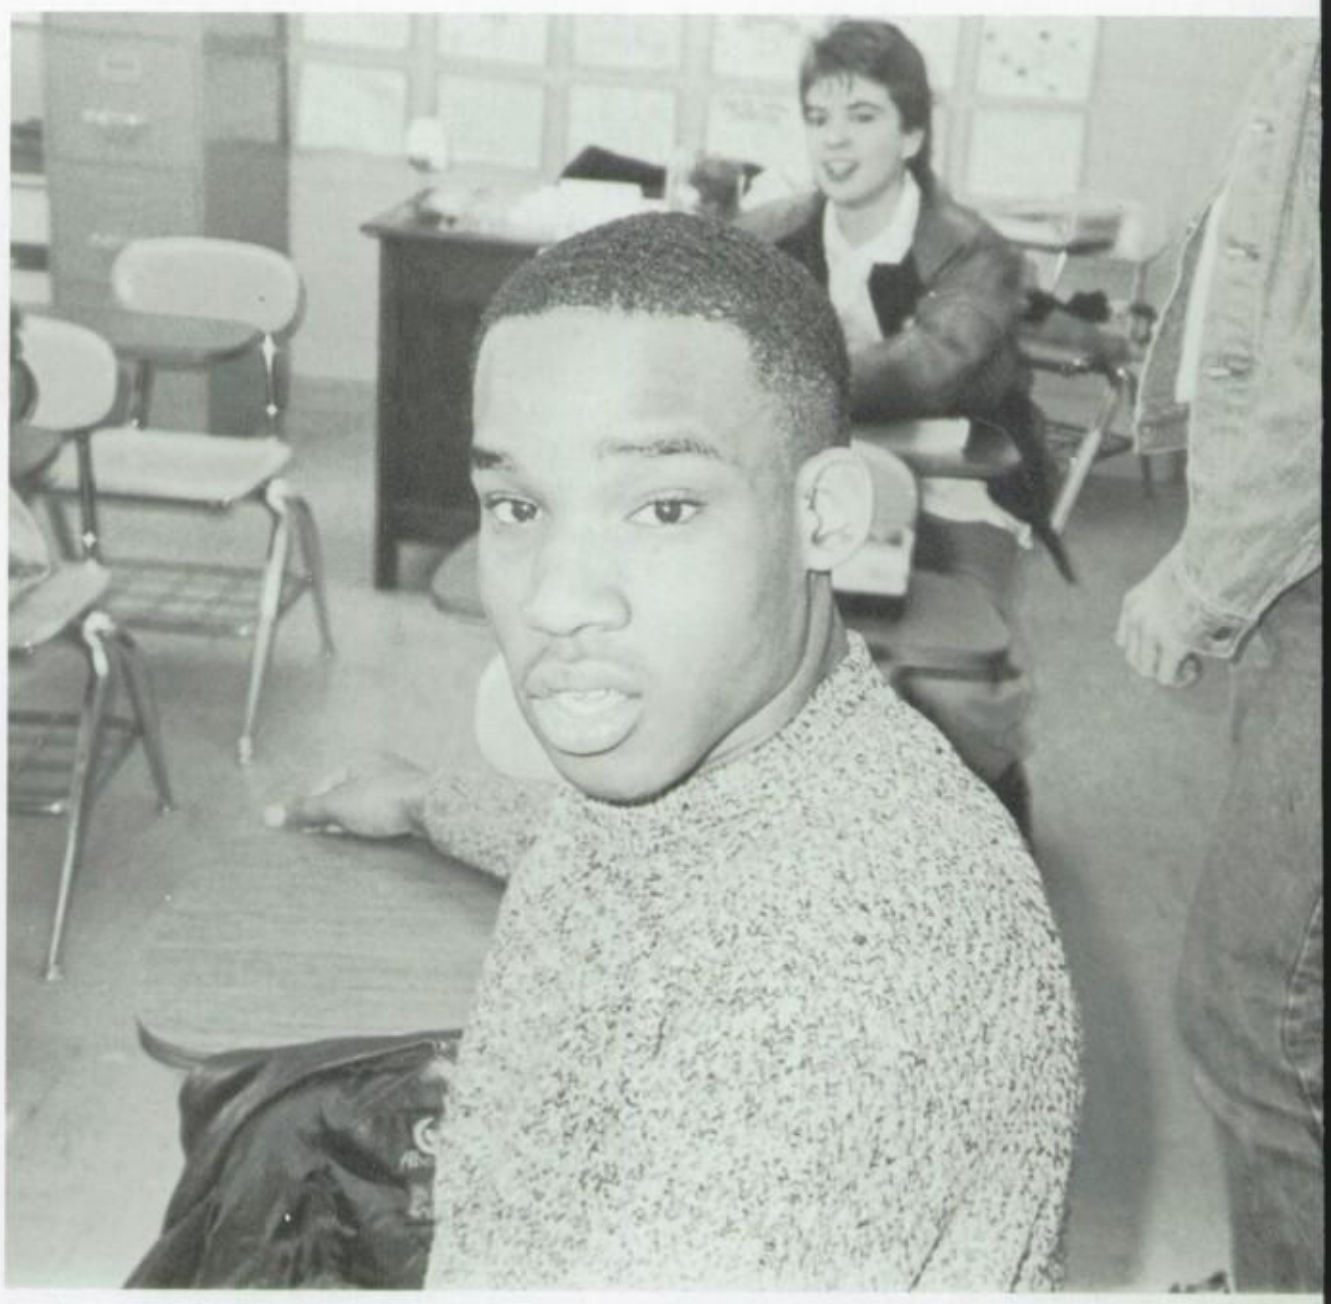
Calling up friends

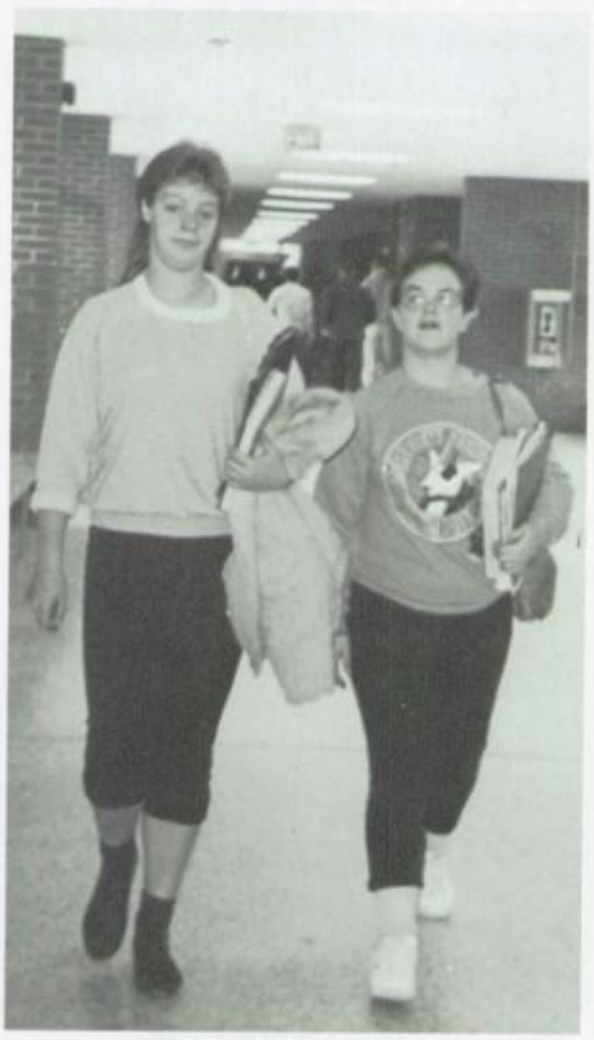
Smile, Gram!➡

I'll be off in just a minute.

Aaaay!

Hey, a photographer!





Just moseying along

Lean on me.

Be sure to get in the picture, David!

Dialing for smiles

Female dominance, huh?➡

Pepping up for Powder Puff half-time show

Yes, I'm late again.

Is the camera crooked?

It can't be that boring.

Is it a "976" number, Steve?

Is that a quarter call?

What's that symbol for, Dale?

DING . . . Your time is up

As the 1987-88 school year comes to an end, we look back and remember all of the special times we've had through the years. The Class of '88 can reminisce about the water tower that once was, their first days at South, their old flames, all of the football games, their last pep rally, and the friendships they've made.

The Journalism Staff has worked very hard this year to make this the best yearbook ever. We've argued, made important decisions, and, overall, tried to make the 1988 SOUTHERNER memorable. We hope we've succeeded.

As we, the Class of '88, depart from South Stanly High School, we hope that the yearbook will help encourage underclassmen to continue the friendly tradition of South Stanly. Farewell and good luck to all. May we forever be KEEPING IN TOUCH.

Going to McDonalds is almost as much apart of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.

You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat. And that's why, at McDonald's we say . . .
